SUBJECT: NAPA Draft Paragraph

This is NAPA's draft paragraph on Agency initiatives to complete page 11 of the interim report.

At our session late yesterday, Don Wortman agreed to the SSG recommendation to revise this section and move it to the head of the report.

We expect another draft on 18 April.

INFORMATION

One significant agency change has been identified which will be evaluated by the panel. The Central Intelligence Agency has developed a flexible benefits program. Under this program, staff will be able to select those benefits within a dollar amount, which best meet their individual needs. A report on this initiative, with panel recommendations, will be provided as soon as the necessary analysis and consideration has been completed.
